

6516204866.txt

The local traffic and weather on XM radio is incredibly useful. Whenever I go to another metro area, I want to be able to find the traffic and weather without searching through all of the local channels hoping to find a station that gives regular updates. In addition, if the NAB is able to silence traffic and weather on satellite radio, why not stop the internet from providing the same information. Keep local traffic and weather on XM.